

Master Class Weekend Banner

Titian Lish, Las Positas College

The Theater Arts Master Class Weekend at Las Positas College provided for students a weekend of workshops, with talented, motivated professionals in theater from throughout the Bay Area, included 3 successful Alumni who have been in Broadway tours, TV shows, films, and are working at ACT! Master Class Weekend presented theater students with the chance to explore a range of topics with Bay Area professionals. The banner provided a visual reminder to the campus community to get involved in this exciting event and was a beacon for location on the day of registration.

Tech Weekend students developed skills in areas such as:

- Advanced Prop Making with Anders Hudson
- Wig Management and Design with Ksenia Antonoff (alumni)
- Advanced Scenic Painting with Adeline Smith
- Costume Organization and Management in Production with Jennifer Gough
